SHIRE NEWS

Thank you to all who came out to battle the cold and put on a demo. Special thanks to Antonio and Bree and kids who came up from Heronter to throw. -- Penn Dixie Demo Crew

[Ed Note: The demo was “Scare-assic Park” at Penn Dixie on October 2nd.]

Congratulations to Aaron the Swift who became Division Three Youth Champion for Aethelmearc at Coronation.

Congratulations to the Emerald Lake Puppet Theater for another fantastic production at Coronation. They were invited to sit at high table after their performance.

Congratulations to Lord William for running his first fencing tourney at Harvest Raid.

Congratulations to Lady Thora for becoming an authorized fencer at Harvest Raid.

Congratulations to Lord Bjorn for receiving his authorization in heavy rapier at Harvest Raid.

Congratulations to all the Heronter youth fighters for wonderfully courteous performances at Harvest Raid. Our fighters included: Anne Marie, Lynn, Katelyn, and Aaron the Swift. Congratulations to Aaron for being the tourney winner that day.

Congratulations to Baroness Marguerite and everyone on her staff for another successful Harvest Raid.

Congratulations to Lord Tiberius and Duke Marcus who, with the inspiration of Duchess Anna and Baroness Marguerite, fought in crown tourney. Duke Marcus made it to the final eight. The eventual winners were Duke Christopher and Duchess Morgen.

Happy Birthday to Lady Catalina de Luna who will be celebrating on November 23.

My mother and I wanted to be sure to extend sincere thanks to all who helped in the kitchen [at Harvest Raid]. Everyone did a great job and was extremely helpful. It was because of all of the help that the feast ran so smoothly. Due to the superior quality of the help, especially with clean up, my mother is willing to cook feast again next year if the shire wishes to utilize her skills and talents.

Congratulations to many members of the shire! Excerpts from the court report at Harvest Raid:

The Report of the Court of Their Royal Majesties Duncan and Ilish, King and Queen of Aethelmarc, held at Harvest Raids in the Shire of Heronter on the 25th day of September Anno Societatis XLV, THLord Brandubh Donnghaile, Silver Buccle, with the assistance of Master Fridrikr Tomasson.

Duchess Dorinda Courtenay was invited forth to speak as the Youth Marshal of the day. She invited all of the youth who fought in the tourney to come forward and presented them all with tokens, and announced that Aaron the Swift had been the victor that day and she presented him with his prize. She further announced that Thorgrim of Blackwater had been deemed to be the most chivalrous fighter on the field.

Lord William Peregrinus had conducted two fencing tourneys during the day and wished to present prizes to Don Christian Amaury de Launey who had won the Single Elimination Tournament and presented a prize to master Quinn Kerr who had won the Round Robin Tournament.

Their Majesties called upon Gruffydd ap Anarawd to attend Them. They praised his efforts in fighting and recruiting new members at demos, arriving early and staying late for events to work, and being of great use in setting up the Heronter camp at Pennsic, and so They Awarded him Arms. Scroll by Lady Mairghad ni Stilbhard uu Coinn.

Edward DeMichel Martel was called forth and Awarded Arms for his many labors, not the least among them being that he had constructed additional portable Holes and list poles for Crown Tourney, he arranged for the firewood for last year's Harvest Raid, and had transported the shire trailer on many occasions, and he served as the apprentice of Viscount Alexander Caithnes of Wyk as he studied the art of making fine armor. Scroll by Lady Isabetta Orsini with words by Baron Caleb Reynolds.

Baron Malcom Fraser the Impatient was inducted into the Order of the Sycamore for his many artistic endeavors in making Viking tents, leather pouches, armor and even the construction of camp gates for the Shire of Heronter. Scroll By Dona Sasha Gray.

Lord Tronose Modoc was called into Their Majesties court. Their Majesties thanked him for his quiet and gentle service. When His Majesty of Drachenwald needed assistance for his Pennsic travel, Tronose had assisted him with rides, as he is well known for going above and beyond when helping others. And so their majesties inducted him into the Order of the Cornelian. Scroll Forthcoming.

Their Majesties thanked the Shire of Heronter for putting on such an event, and seeing to the needs of the Royalty and setting the mood. They thanked all who attended and those who marshaled activities and those who fought in the tourneys for all making the day all that it was.

I write this missive on the eve of an important anniversary for me: on October 29, 2000, I lost my partner, Kris, to an automobile accident. While I was looking for a proper way to honor his memory this year, I received the shocking news that Kris's gravestone was destroyed in an act of vandalism. This left me disheartened, but more aware of the possibilities of new beginnings than ever before.

I have overcome many barriers since Kris's passing, but perhaps the hardest has been my physical disability. Spending nearly a decade watching the fighters of our glorious Kingdom, a seed was planted in my mind. I vowed to take up the gauntlet of fighting, with the intention of fighting a challenge at Harvest Raid in order to both raise money for a new stone, and to break through the mental pitfalls of having a painful illness. At War Practice, I was given the full amount for a new stone, and told to focus on fighting, leaving me ever amazed with the generosity of our SCAdian family. There were many people who helped me along the journey, culminating in a three hour challenge at Harvest Raid. Not only did I manage to physically fulfill my challenge, I was also able to honor Kris's memory as he would have wished. Before every bout, I asked my opponents to vow that they'd make certain to tell their loved ones how much they are loved. I have since been told many stories from fighters who took their vows to heart, and still carry the spirit of my challenge into every fight. There is no better honor for Kris's memory than this...

-- Lady Reneta, The Posh Rot

Greetings Unto the Noble Populace!!

Ever since I started in the SCA, I have always heard some debate as to how expensive it is to attend Estrella War for a week. Now I watch my dollars as much as the next person and having given it some thought over an episode of David Letterman, I wanted to throw out some numbers for those of us who have to choose how to spend a week of hard earned leave. So in the style of The Late Show, I give you my TOP TEN LIST OF THINGS MORE EXPENSIVE THAN GOING TO ESTRELLA WAR!!

1. Getting bounced out of Disneyland by Mickey Mouse himself for stalking Cinderella - $216 (that's just the 6 day Park Hopper pass)
2. Discovering that JAWS isn't part of the Pirates of the Caribbean ride at Disney World - $296 (again just the tickets)
3. Waking up next to Wayne Newton after 6 crazy nights at the Excalibur in Las Vegas - $450
4. Instead of recreating the Middle Ages you try to recreate "The Hangover 2" - (Bail Money sucks, but Mike Tyson rocks!)
5. Watching Avatar every day for 6 days trying to figure out why

Gargamel isn't in this production of The Smurfs -$135 (with a small drink and Popcorn)

6. Spending 6 days at Magic Mountain asking other travelers how to get rid of that One Ring - $240 (admission only)

7. Six days in beautiful Hawaii trying to be an Extra in "Dog the Bounty Hunter" - $650+ (depending on whether you fly or swim)

8. Realizing that after 6 days, the food at Medieval Times tastes like the Green Knights old turnshoes - ($57.95 per show)

9. Trying to hike your way out of the Grand Canyon because your iPhone GPS doesn't work right - ($18 per day)

10. Pennsic - ($110)

Pre-Registration for Estrella War costs a mere $65 and comes complete with camping, showers, privies, fighting, A&S classes, equestrian, archery, rapier, hardsuit combat, heraldry consultations, period demo, merchants row, or any one of the myriad of other things that there are to do at Estrella War.

So take the time to Pre-Register for Estrella War. All it takes is a $20 deposit to pre-reg, and you can pay the rest at the gate. Learn more by following the link below:
